SEMESTER ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES

CIS Abroad www.cisabroad.com: CIS Abroad will match you with an internship that supports your personal and professional goals. As part of the matching process, they also work to meet academic requirements set by MCLA so that you can graduate on time.

ISA (International Studies Abroad) www.studiesabroad.com

Internships and Service-Learning: Apply the theories you've learned in the classroom to a real-world internship or volunteer experience abroad. Gain personal and professional development while helping organizations and community partners achieve their goals.

Across the Pond www.studyacrossthepond.com: provides student advice and guidance to US students looking to study at some of the top UK universities. This organization represents over 40 universities across the UK and the students they work with benefit from a high acceptance rate to these institutions.

Semester at Sea: during the spring and fall semesters, the approximately 100-day program circumnavigates the globe, with up to 720 undergraduates^[3] traveling from North America heading either east across the Atlantic or west across the Pacific, visiting from 8 to 11 countries in Asia, Africa, Europe and South America, before ending the voyage in another North American port.

SHORT-TERM POST GRADUATE OPPORTUNITIES

Anseye Pou Ayiti (Teach for Haiti): Anseye Pou Ayiti envisions an education system in Haiti that affords all the country's citizens their human right to a high-quality education by promoting teacher excellence and student success.

Blue Engine

Blue Engine provides recent college graduates an opportunity to engage in one year of direct service designed to accelerate academic achievement in high-need public high schools.

Massachusetts Promise Fellowship Program

This program is a part of AmeriCorps that places Fellows who commit to a year of service at non-profit organizations, schools, and city agencies across Massachusetts to create, lead, and manage youth development projects.

City Year

City Year unites young people of all backgrounds for a year of full-time service, giving them the skills and opportunities to change the world. As tutors, mentors and role models, these diverse young leaders help children stay in school and on track, and transform schools and communities across the United States, as well as through international affiliates in Johannesburg, South Africa and London, England. Just as important, during their year of service corps members develop civic leadership skills they can use throughout a lifetime of community service.

Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET Programme) <http://jetprogramme.org> Aiming primarily to promote grass-roots internationalization at the local level, the JET Programme invites young college graduates from around the world to participate in international exchange work and be involved in foreign language education at Japan's local government offices, Boards of Education, elementary schools, junior high schools, and senior high schools. The JET Programme has gained high acclaim both domestically and internationally for being one of the world's largest international exchange programs.

Nanubhai Education Foundation Teaching Fellowship

The Nanubhai Fellowship is a yearlong opportunity for passionate, motivated individuals interested in improving rural education and providing access to new opportunities for rural students in India. Fellows work with local teachers, teach English, and support our capacity building programs by working directly with the communities we serve. Fellows live within the rural villages they serve, allowing them to get to know their students, their students' families and to be completely integrated with the community.

Cape Eleuthera Island School Teaching Fellowship

The Island School's Teaching Fellowship Program is an opportunity for recent college graduates who are interested in pursuing a career in education. It is an ideal way for future teachers to immerse themselves in all aspects of boarding school life, while receiving the support and training necessary to be successful as educators. As a member of our community, teaching fellows will experience the day-to-day challenges of living on an island while also discovering the rewards of working with young people and other educators who share a similar dedication to academic rigor, environmental issues, and local culture.

Public Allies Fellowship

The Public Allies fellowship program at Eagle Rock School and Professional Development Center supports new ways of leading that are right for the times and right for a unique student population. The Fellowship Program provides twelve individuals with an advanced yearlong service and leadership development program focused on education and youth development at the nationally recognized Eagle Rock School and Professional Development Center located in Estes Park, Colorado.

School for Ethics and Global Leadership – SEGL Fellowship

Located in Washington, DC, The School for Ethics and Global Leadership is a semester-long residential program for a diverse group of intellectually motivated high school juniors from across the United States. This fellowship represents an extraordinary opportunity for a rising star in the nonprofit sector to help build a school that is changing the world. The School for Ethics and Global Leadership is seeking a small number of enthusiastic, committed team members to help supervise, teach, and mentor students, and to take a leadership role in key administrative areas.

MATCH Corps Urban Education/Teaching Fellowship

This is an 11 month (August through June) residential fellowship program. It pairs Corps members with 6-7 MATCH High or Middle School students. Corps members run small group or 1-on-1 tutorials every day, run extra-curricular programs, coach sports, and serve as a Teaching Assistant to one of our classroom teachers or as an Administrative Assistant in each of the school departments.

Citizen Schools

Citizen Schools puts talented young educators into a second shift of middle schools across the country, working on a team with school leaders, families, and volunteers in a proven model. Get on-the-job educator training, hone professional skills in a key nonprofit area, and impact the community in a meaningful way.

Teach For America

All kids—no matter where they live, how much money their parents make, or what their skin
